HONORS OF STATE HINGE ON BIG GAME

Fast B. Y. U. Five Will Tonight Fight
Desperately With Y. M. C. A.
At Basketball.

The most important basketball game of the season up to the present time will be played tonight in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium when the B. Y. U. team of Provo will clash with the Y. M. C. A. five. Should the college boys win it means that the title of state champions goes to them. Should they lose Y. M. C. A. must play them again on neutral ground for the state honors.

In their first game the B. Y. U. team won by a score of 23 to 21 in a fast and exciting game. Last Tuesday an exhibition game was played at Provo which was won by the Y. M. C. A. by a score of 25 to 21. This last game did not count in the record, however, as it was but an extra game arranged to fill a date left vacant by the cancellation of the Kansas game.

Both teams have been training daily for the big game tonight and are on keen edge. They are playing the fastest game they have put up during the season so much the game upon which centers so much the interest ever seen in Salt Lake. Both of the coaches, Fred Benham of the B. Y. U. and Oscar Gingrich of the Y. M. C. A. express themselves as satisfied with the condition of the men.

Provo will send a large delegation with the team in a special train and it is probable that a record-breaking crowd will be in attendance when referee Joe Maddock of the University of Utah calls the game. The game will be held at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, where it goes on March 6 to take part in the national athletic meet.

The line-up tonight:

Y. M. C. A.	B. Y. U.
Wilcox, Grunfor, L. F.	Chamberlain
Hammond, L. F.	Rose
Anderson, C. H.	Christensen
Gunn, Nelson, L. G.	Christensen
Holmington, R. G.	Jones

B. Y. U. SUBSTITUTES DEFEAT L. D. S. U. FIVE

(Special to The News.)
Provo, Feb. 25.—The B. Y. U. five defeated the L. D. S. U. basketball team here tonight by a score of 47 to 12 in a game that was uninteresting other than that it demonstrated some fine teamwork on the part of the local team, which was, in reality, the second five of the school. Coach Benham decided not to take any chances of injury to his star first team because of the grueling game which is expected with the Y. M. C. A. at Salt Lake Saturday night.

The line-up:

B. Y. U.	L. D. S. U.
Chapman, L. F.	Lund
Jacobs, L. F.	Snow

DECISIVE DEFEAT FOR FIVE OF BAKER CITY

(Special to The News.)
Payette, Ida., Feb. 25.—For the eighth successive time Payette high school has been returned a victor in basketball, this time over the Baker City boys by a score of 35 to 14. The local five played rings around the visitors, administering a second defeat in a row. There was no more interest in the game as before, meeting Payette, Baker City had not been defeated. Payette is open for a challenge from any high school team in the northwest.

FIELDING IS DOWNED BY PLYMOUTH FIVE

(Special to The News.)
Plymouth, Feb. 25.—One of the fastest and most interesting basketball games ever seen in Plymouth was played at the Plymouth Opera House today. The rushing five of Fielding was outclassed in every part of the game. The score was 23 to 21 in favor of Plymouth.

HOMER HOISINGTON GOES TO DETROIT

Homer L. Hoisington, who for three years has been special assistant to Oscar L. Cox, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has resigned to accept a position with the Y. M. C. A. of Detroit, Mich. His connection with the Salt Lake organization terminates March 1, but he will not leave for Detroit until some time later.

COMMISSION REFUSES TO RESTORE OUTLAWS

Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—J. B. Henderson and Thomas P. Sheehan today were refused reinstatement in organized baseball by the national baseball commission. Last season Sheehan played with the California State league, an "outlaw" organization. He ignored the offer of a national commission to reinstate him, claiming that he was not a professional player. Henderson was similar, he having played with the Stockton team of the California league.

Bill Lorey, outfielder, was released to New York today by Cincinnati.

PACIFIC COAST TEAM ARE TENNIS CHAMPIONS

New York, Feb. 25.—The Pacific coast pair, Carl R. Gardner and Gustav F. Touchard, today won the indoor tennis doubles on the courts of the Seventh regiment armory. They defeated W. B. Cragin Jr. and Miles S. Charlock of the Elizabeth Town and Country club, after five grueling sets, 6-1, 2-6, 7-3, 6-1 and 6-4. In every respect the match was one of the most notable ever played for the title. Gardner was disappointing. His service was weak and his volleying wide of the court. Only the brilliancy of Touchard saved the match. His overhead smashing was excellent and his cross-volleying earned many points at critical moments. Steadiness was the main feature of the losers' game. They lobbed with great effect and it was due to this sort of playing that the match was closely scored.

PRINCETON EVOLVES ATHLETIC SYSTEM

Fully Half of Students Take Part in Some Game at Great University.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 25.—The completion, next week, of the first year of a system of athletics which gives an opportunity for participation in various sports to nearly 50 per cent of the students at Princeton university, has directed attention to what is known as "intracollegiate" athletics, devised by the undergraduates here and carried out with a success that overstepped expectations.

Realizing the criticism generally against the play-to-win spirit of athletics, especially with the Varsity teams of the colleges, and hoping to establish a spirit of "sport for sport's sake," the intracollegiate system of athletics was established in Princeton as an experiment in basketball. Within the first two months more men had frequented the gymnasium than ever before.

The plan was followed, cut with even more success in baseball and now basketball, bowling and hockey are included in it.

The percentage of men competing on "Varsity" teams or directly concerned with the Varsity, second Varsity, etc., is relatively small in every college. The great body of undergraduates have been merely spectators. They have at Princeton retained that, but added more. Twenty-one relay teams, 25 baseball teams, 14 bowling teams, and 40 basketball teams have been organized.

CLASS TEAMS.
The proposal was made in The Daily Princetonian, the college paper a year ago, that all students in the university be afforded an opportunity for athletic competition not only for the development of material for Varsity but with the principal idea of rendering to all undergraduates an opportunity to enjoy the benefits of exercise in various sports in actual competition. A committee of undergraduates formulated a plan. The upperclass clubs, the freshmen and sophomores, were all represented at a conference at which details were arranged. First, the basketball schedule was drawn up. Upperclass club teams were pitted against one another in one series of games. Sophomores met in another series at another time. The cost was practically nothing. The gymnasium fee is included on the university bill of everybody. It did, however, cause a great number of undergraduates to have gone spasmodically. The different series of games were run by the committees of the underclassmen, and contests being run off with promptness and regularity. The championship finals produced two strong basketball teams. A trophy was awarded the winning team.

Bowling is carried on in much the same way during the winter afternoons. Only the contest are, as a rule, men who are not so interested in basketball. In baseball, the plan works out to great advantage and next spring an effort will be made to try it in crew work, too.

MANY PLAY BALL.

The baseball competition requires some expense. This is easily raised by subscription, however, among the undergraduates. Brookaw Field, the old Varsity field, is rolled and trimmed at a cost of about $1,200. Three diamonds are laid out, regulation bases are placed on them, screens are erected behind home plate and the grounds are cared for throughout the season. The baseball schedule permits about 108 men to play in games daily. With the number not playing scheduled games but practicing in other parts of Brookaw field, which is an admirable expanse of playing-ground, about 200 to 300 men play baseball off the field in March.

On Lake Carnegie, the system will be tried this spring. There are a number of eight-oared and four-oared shells and heretofore there has been only interclass competition. This has limited rowing to a comparatively small number, though about 60 candidates have been working in practice in the intracollegiate system in practice in rowing, about 150 men or more will be able to take advantage of the opportunities for physical development in aquatic.

OSCAR B. GINGRICH.

Physical Instructor of the Y. M. C. A.
Oscar B. Gingrich is but a recent appointment to the position which he now holds at the head of the athletic department of the Y. M. C. A. but in the short time that he has held the position he has obtained some wonderful results. One is the development of one of the fastest basketball teams in the country. He is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall, 1904, where he made a national reputation as left end on the football team. Mr. Gingrich is a fast basketball player also and is noted for the inside work which he practices. He is very popular with the boys under him.

for its own sake. It is fair, clean and invigorating. The system has the approval of the university authorities.

BIG RACE TRACKS POOL INTERESTS

Brighton, Empire City, Aqueduct, and Jamaica Have Entered Into a Working Agreement.

New York, Feb. 25.—Four of the big race tracks around New York city have pooled interests in the coming season. They are Brighton, Empire City, Aqueduct and Jamaica. As a result of their agreement the four times in March will be the only time that may result from 82 days of sport allotted them. It appears that the recent puzzle over the allotment of dates made this combination advisable.

The idea originated from the fact that Sheephead, Gravesend and Belmont have been pooling their holiday receipts on certain of the season's big days. When it was found that these big tracks insisted on having the usual quota of dates, including the holidays, and that Saratoga demanded at least 21 days, while Empire City and Brighton declined to hold fall meetings, it was suggested that the four associates should combine for mutual protection.

Aqueduct and Jamaica will each race 25 days come off City will conduct a 12-day meeting and Brighton will be open for 14 days.

The track owners declare that they do not expect racing to prove a profitable investment this year. They say they will be forced to pay out but as yet has received no reply. It is planned to put either Sullivan or Collins against the man who went down to defeat before Battling Nelson in the historic Goldfield contest.

"Peanuts" Sinclair and Young Erlenborn have been matched for a go before the Manhattan Athletic club at 122 pounds. The details will be announced later.

which has arisen from comparative insignificance to such a startling immensity in such a short period of time. Hardly 10 years have elapsed since the motor car was a crudity, a novelty, which was indifferently considered as a curious mechanical device for the amusement of millionaires, and that is a record of which no other great business can boast. The fact that there are millions upon millions of dollars invested in the great factories which are producing so many thousands of automobiles during the opening season of 1910 is becoming widely known, and the manufacturing of motor vehicles is recognized as one of the great factors in the economic situation in the United States.

Various estimates are given as to the probable output of the 250 makers, but the most reasonable ones place the figures between 150,000 and 200,000, and were it not for two safety valves which tend to produce a regulating effect, it is likely that even this great production would soar still higher. An overwhelming outpouring of touring cars, roadsters, and other types is only prevented by the inability of the automobile manufacturers to obtain the necessary specialized parts, and the other regulating spirit is found in the recent decision upon the Selden patent, by which the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers will have the power to decide what concerns shall be allowed to construct motor vehicles and how many they may produce.

Twenty-one states practically include all makers of machines, and of course, in some of these the production is very small so that the centers of the trade are found in about six sections of the country, such as Detroit, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Cleveland, New England states and the Springfield Mass. and eastern Pennsylvania. Detroit will turn out the greatest number and Indianapolis will probably be second. The factories in all of these places are already taxed to their utmost capacity. The Premier company will produce in all about 1,000 cars for the 1910 season and is now regularly delivering 25 each week to the sales department. As it is the plant is in operation by night as well as by day. This is only feasible when the makers really manufacture, as does the Premier company, and not merely assemble.

SALT LAKE AGAIN ON PUGILISTIC MAP

The imbroglio at San Francisco over the Jeffries-Johnson bout has led to so many complications that Salt Lake once more looms up as a possibility. It is said that Gleason and Rickard have split over the site and that the Nevada man is ready to stage the big affair any place outside of California.

J. E. Larford, secretary of the Salt Lake & Los Angeles Railway company, left Friday night for San Francisco in response to a telegram from Rickard. Joseph Nelson, president of the company, says that he will force Rickard to keep his agreement to pull off the contest at Saltair.

YOKEL PINS DOWN ACKERMAN TWICE

Y. M. C. A. Man Becomes Champion
Welterweight Wrestler—Falls Secured in 43 and 21 Minutes.

Mike Yokel, wrestling instructor of the Y. M. C. A., is now champion welterweight wrestler of the country, having defeated Al Ackerman, possessor of the title, at the Salt Lake theater, Friday night, in two straight falls. It took 43 minutes to pin Ackerman's shoulders down the first time, but the second fall was obtained in 21 minutes. The match was witnessed by one of the largest crowds that ever attended a similar event in Salt Lake.

Yokel was the aggressor from the start and was evidently much stronger of the two. For half an hour the exhibition was one of the finest that has been seen in Salt Lake, each man displaying a thorough knowledge of mat work. Ackerman pulled out many tight holds by consummate wrestling which drew applause from the crowd time and again.

After nearly 40 minutes of vain endeavor to get a fall, Yokel got a hold on Ackerman and was forcing his shoulders steadily to the mat when the referee, that he admitted to a bad knee and that the toe hold acquired by Yokel had found his way into the referee's mind, that he admitted to a bad knee and that the toe hold acquired by Yokel had found his way into the referee's mind, that he admitted to a bad knee and that the toe hold acquired by Yokel had found his way into the referee's mind.

After the match Ackerman acknowledged that he had met a better man. Of course, the knee handicapped me, he said, but I think that if it had not been for my leg I could have prolonged the match. Yokel is too strong. But I would like to get another match with him later on when my leg gets well. I have no excuses. I was in good shape when the exception of the leg. I had trained hard and had been in Utah long enough to get used to the altitude. The referee, however, Mack and Mortenson struggled vigorously for 10 minutes to a draw. Dale Dean, who is the Y. M. C. A. middleweight champion, pinned down Lloyd, the 135-pound champion, in five minutes, after some very clever work on the part of the defeated man.
